

Real-time facial, body and behavior attribute detection and tracking technology proven to operate with the highest accuracy in real-time and real-world scenarios.

Oosto is driven by a singular mission: to protect people. In mission-critical, high-stakes scenarios, there's no room for error. Oosto's Vision AI algorithms are built for real-world performance, achieving near-zero false positives while virtually eliminating bias. Trained under the toughest conditions, Oostos video analytics excel in complex environments—even with low-quality video and on compact, low-power devices.

Oosto's solutions are built to rapidly scale and deliver exceptional results via deployment types including: on-premises and on-premises expansion via edge processing, edge-to-cloud, and SDK.

Near-instant Person of Interest (POI) alerting on:

- Banned persons
- BOLOs
- Previous offenders/threat actors
- Restraining orders
- Thieves
- Terrorists
- Organized crime (retail & other)
- Elopement/fleeing

Perimeter cameras and mobile device monitoring to alert on:

- POIs before they can enter a facility
- Safety incidents (slip/falls, fighting)
- Potentially suspicious behavior (crouching near vehicles, loitering)

Real-time tracking via proprietary body modeling for:

- Monitoring a POI's movements across cameras even with no face detection
- Situational awareness in an emergency (active shooter/threat, emergency mustering)

Live action and pose detection with durations:

- Alerting on safety protocols (fighting, falling, lying down, crouching, loitering)
- Identify line crossing and area intrusion into sensitive or secure areas

Forensics and access control:

- Rapidly search hours of video using body, face, and attributes (top color, bottom color, accessories)
- Find associates of POIs via forensics search
- Frictionless access control
